What's the buzz? Tell me what's happening
Why should you want to know?
Don't you mind about the future,
don't you try to think ahead
Save tomorrow for tomorrow,
think about today instead

And tomorrow's gonna be a brighter day
There gonna be some changes
Tomorrow gonna be a brighter day
This time you can believe me
No more cryin' in your lonely room
And no more empty nights
'Cause tomorrow mornin' everything will turn out right.

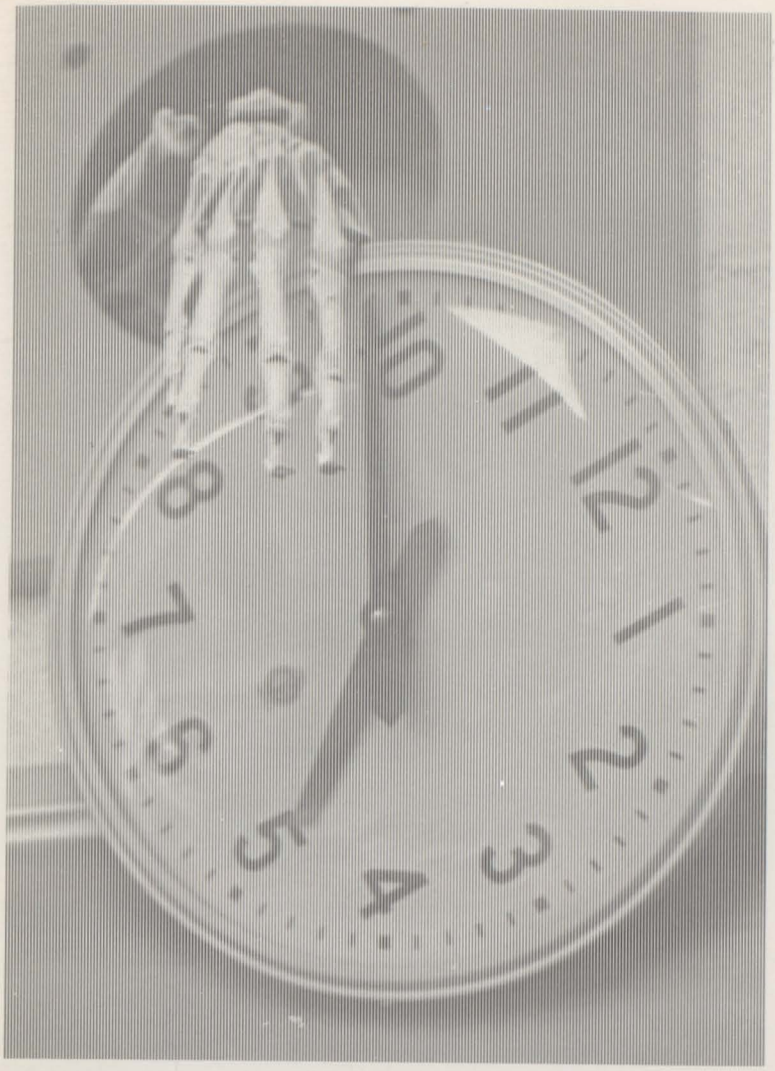
-Jim Croce



If I could save time in a bottle
The first thing that I'd like to do
Is to save every day
'Til Eternity passes away
Just to spend them with you

If I could make days last forever
If words could make wishes come true
I'd save every day like a treasure and then,
Again, I would spend them with you

But there never seems to be enough time
To do the things you want to do
Once you find them
I've looked around enough to know
That you're the one I want to go Through time with

If I had a box just for wishes
And dreams that had never come true
The box would be empty except for the memory
Of how they were answered by you

-Jim Croce

MADE IN THE USA

For everything there is a season and a time for every matter under heaven;
a time to be born, and a time to die;
a time to plant, and a time to pluck up
what is planted;
a time to kill, and a time to heal;
a time to break down, and a time to build up;
a time to weep, and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn, and a time to dance;
a time to cast away stones, and a time
to gather stones together;
a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
a time to seek, and a time to lose;
a time to keep, and a time to cast
away;
a time to rend, and a time to sew;
a time to keep silence, and a time
to speak;
a time to love, and a time to hate;
a time for war, and a time for peace.

-Ecclesiastes

Is there an oasis
Where Time stands still,
Where the fugitive beauty
Stays as we will?
Is there an oasis
Where Time stands still?

-G. W. Russel

Yesterday all my troubles seemed so far away
Now it looks as though they're here to stay
Oh I believe in yesterday

Suddenly, I'm not half the man I used to be
There's a shadow hanging over me
Oh yesterday came suddenly

Why she had to go I don't know
She wouldn't say
I said something wrong now I long for yesterday

Yesterday love was such an easy game to play
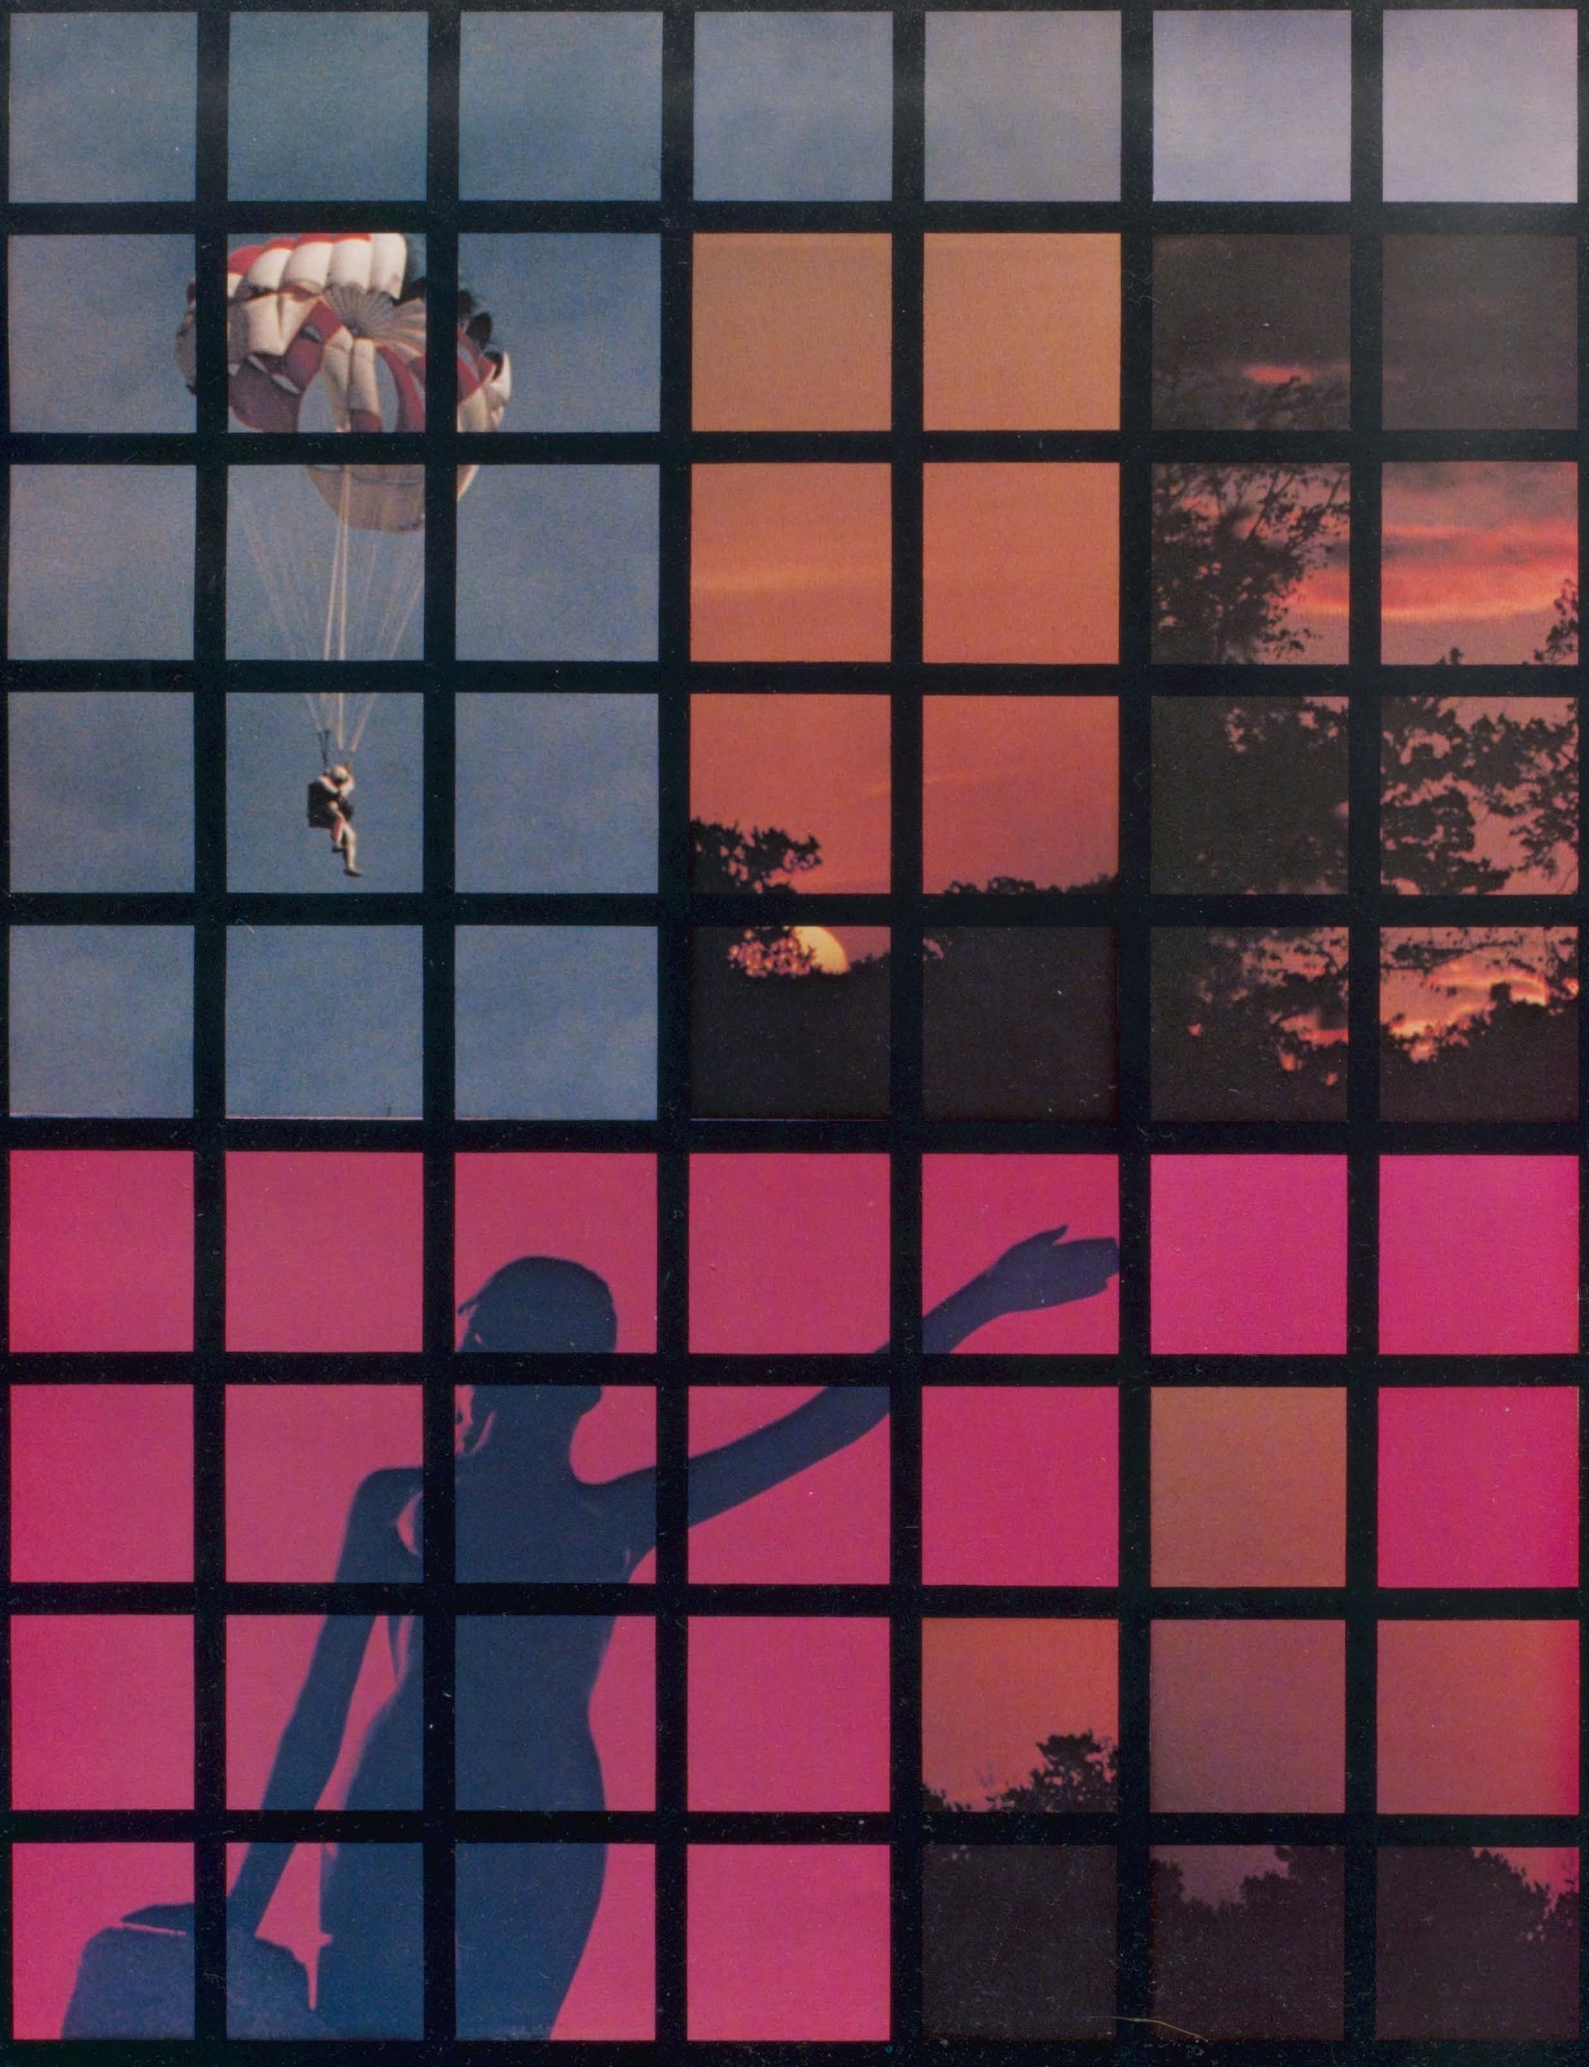
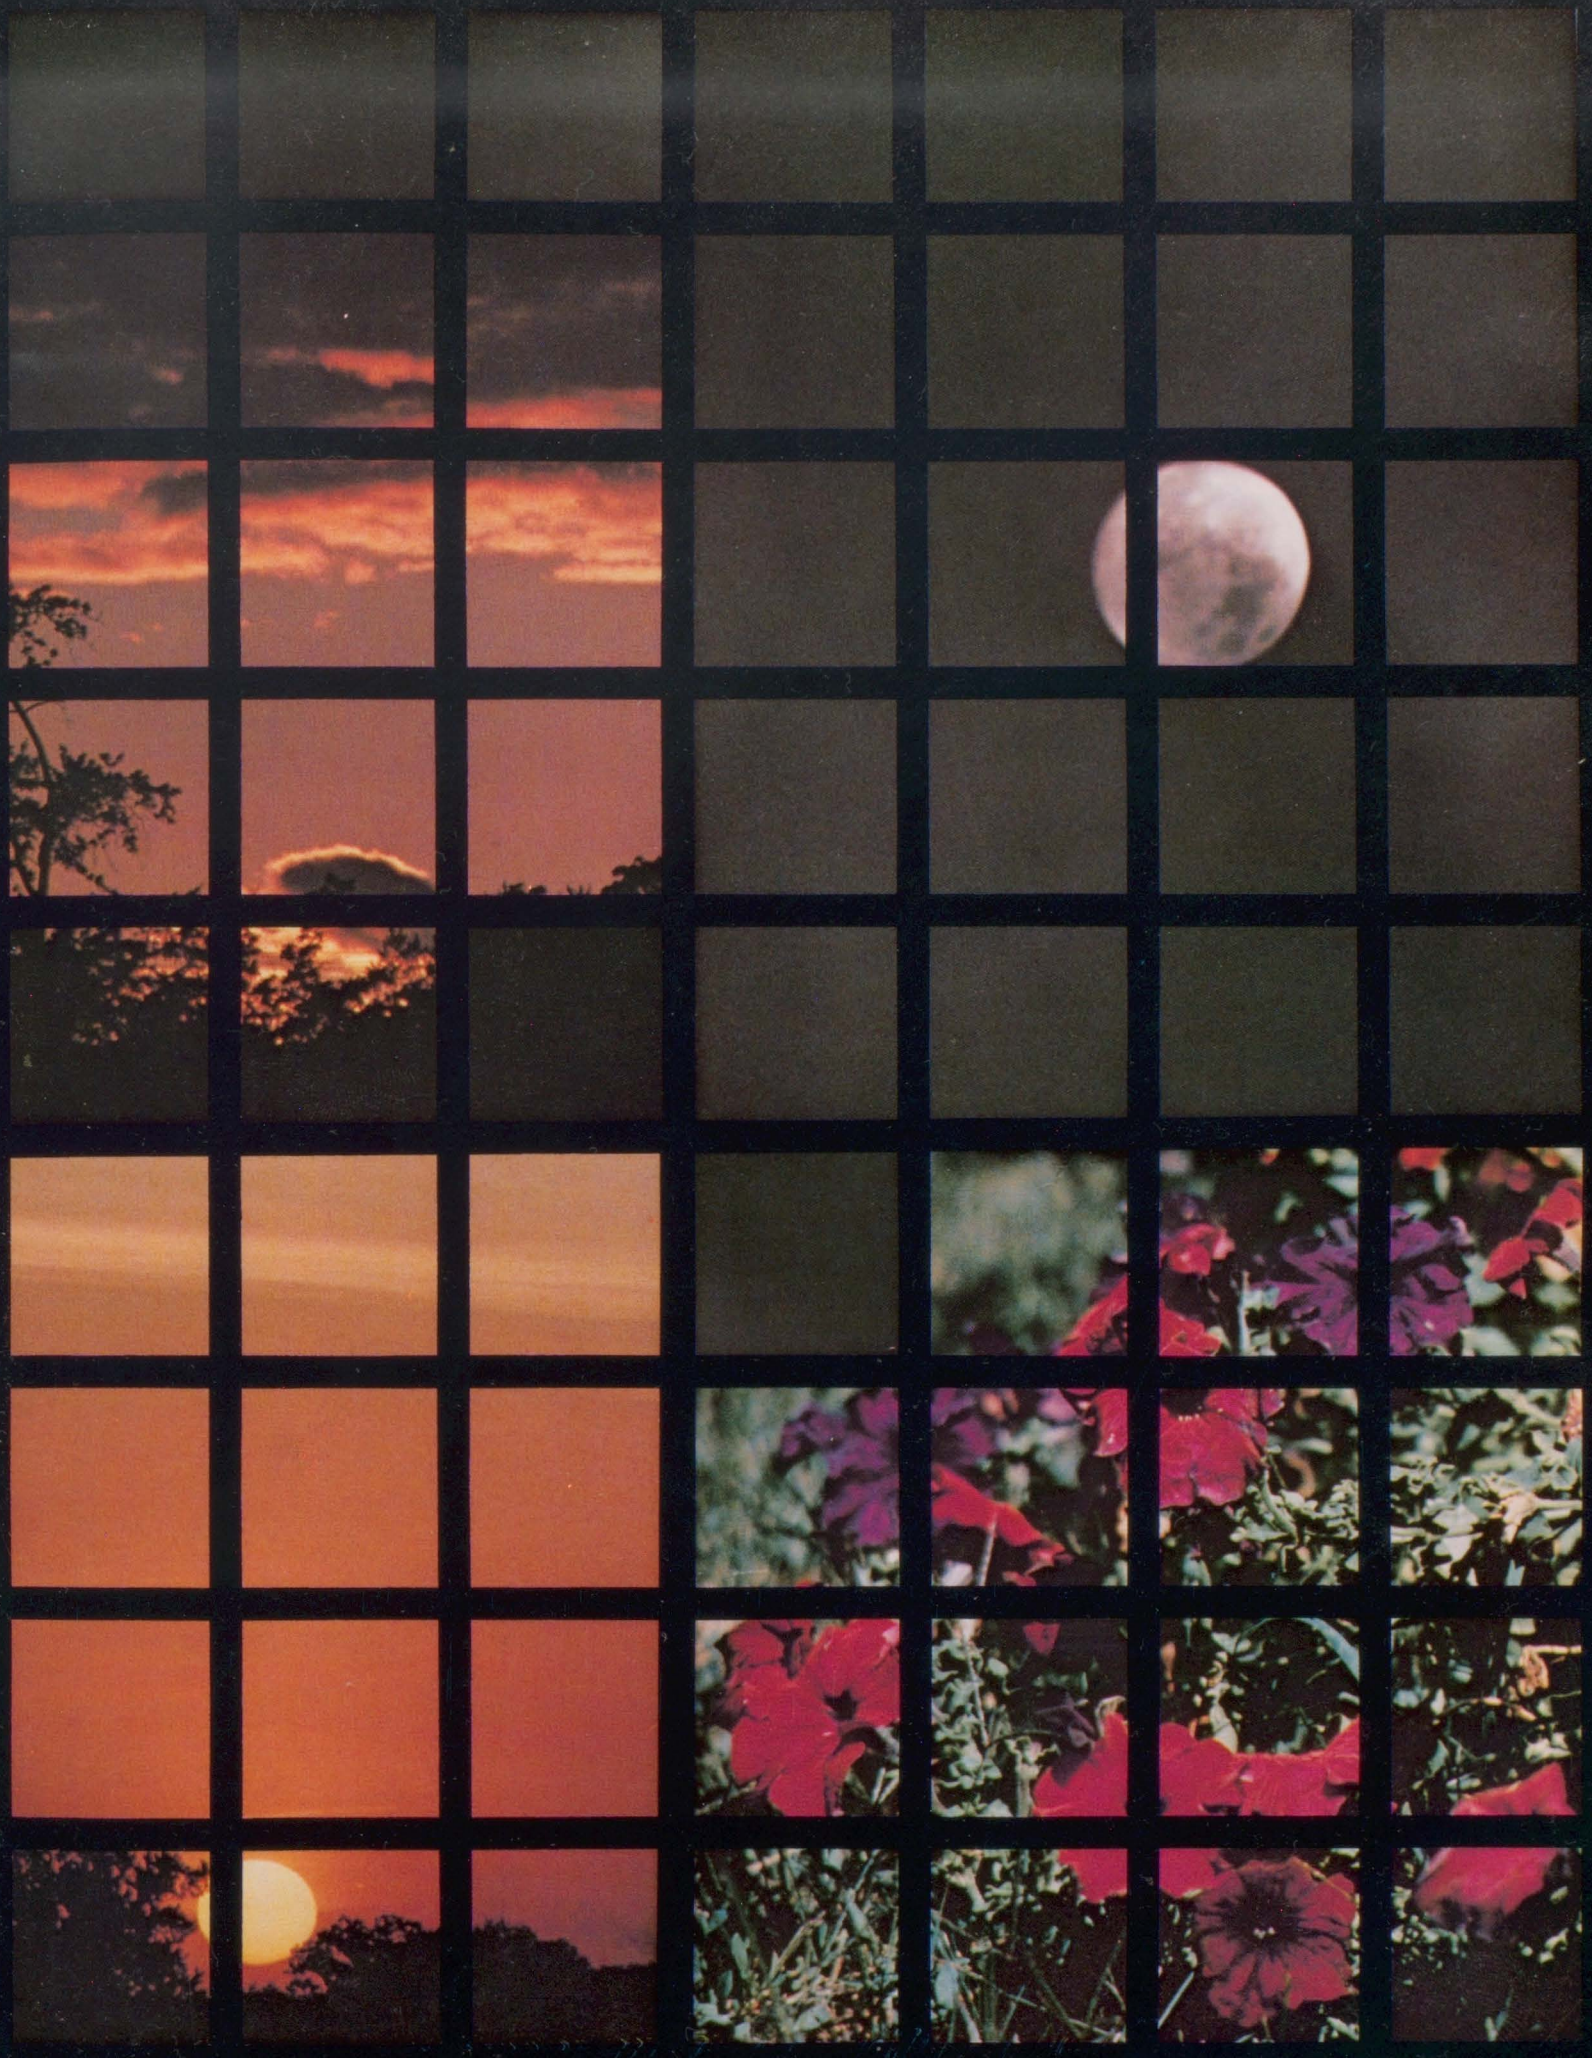
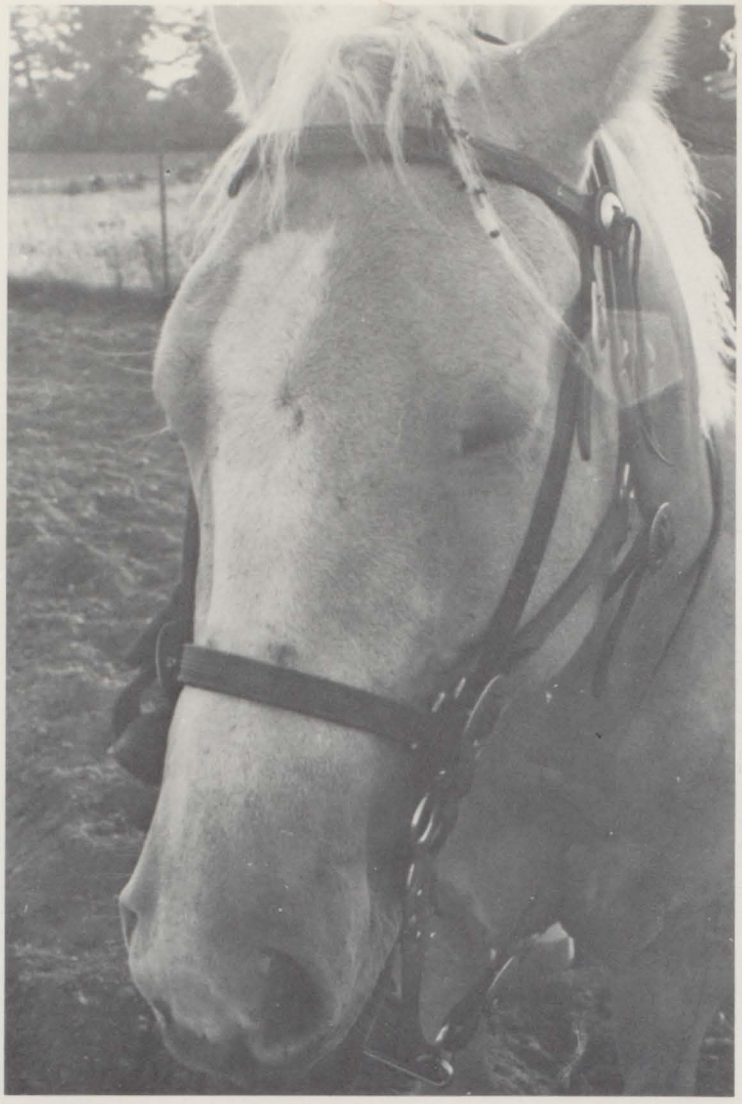
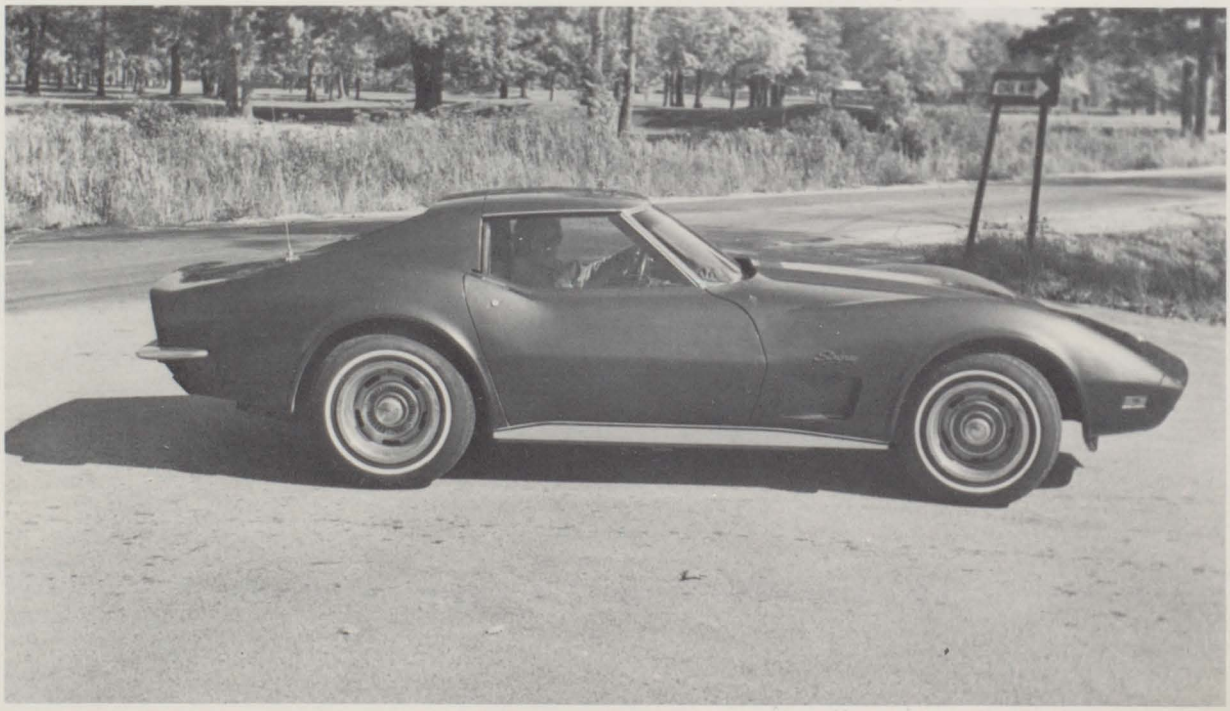
Now I need a place to hide away
Oh I believe in Yesterday

-Lennon & McCartney









Hey tomorrow, where are you goin'
Do you have some room for me
'Cause night is fallin' and the dawn is
callin'
I'll have a new day if she'll have me

Hey tomorrow, I can't show you nothin'
You've seen it all pass by your door
So many times I said I been changin'
Then slipped into patterns of what happened before

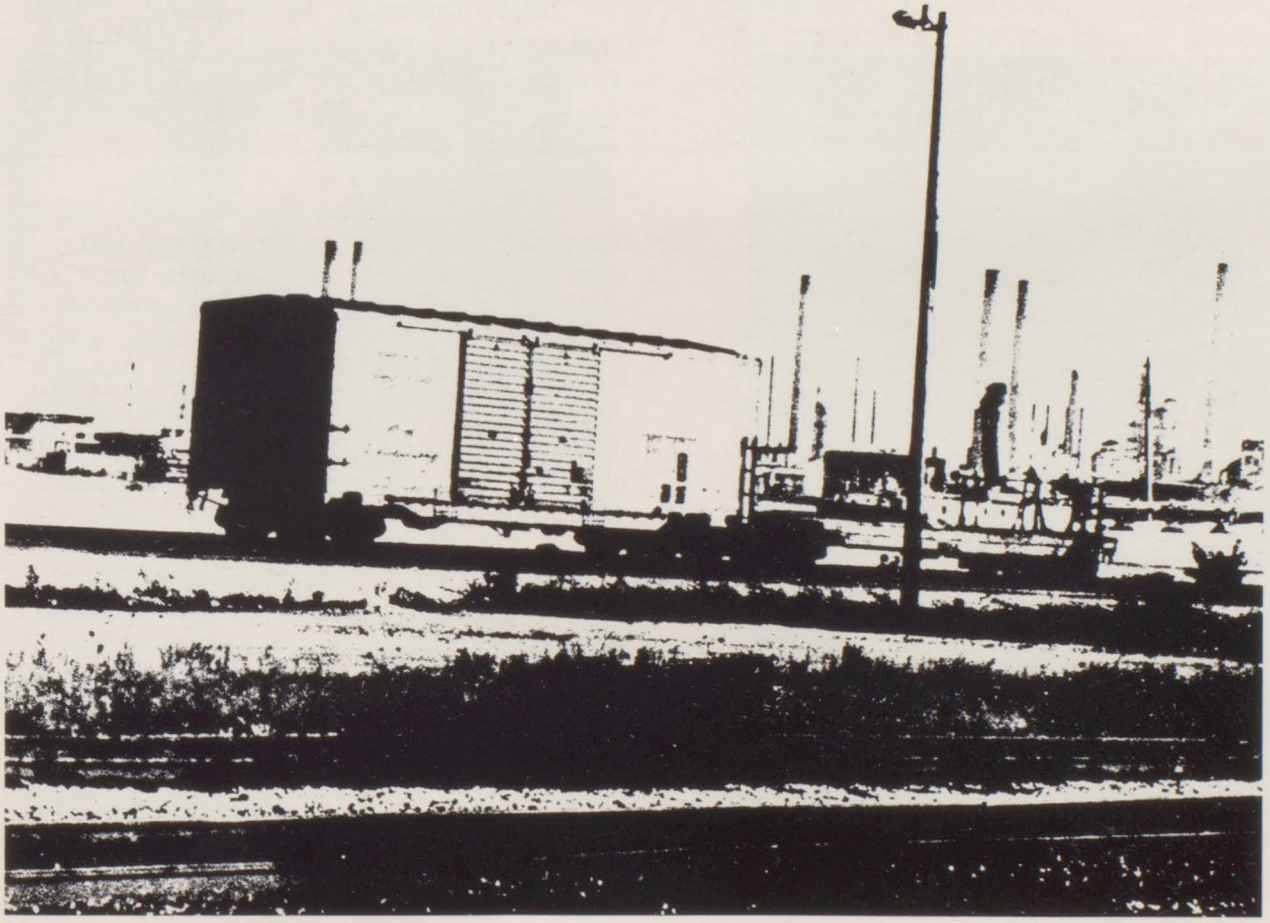
'Cause I've been wasted and I've over-tasted
All the things that life gave to me
And I've been trusted, abused and busted
And I've been taken by those close to me

Hey tomorrow you've gotta believe that
I'm through wastin' what's left of me
'Cause night is fallin' and the dawn is
callin'
I'll have a new day if she'll have me

-Jim Croce



. . . Just a fine school . . .

The old man asked me to sit down, for he needed a listener. So I pulled up a chair and listened as he told me of his past, of the days when he went to school.

"When I was in the fourth grade we had a brand new school house. The old one burned down the year before. Well, it was just a fine school. We had the new type of desks with ink wells and a rack underneath the seat to hold our books. The teacher's desk was right up front where she could watch everybody. Behind her desk and to the right stood the shiny, black, potbelly stove.

"In the wintertime it wasn't uncommon for it to get 20 below zero, so us kids used to take turns coming to school early to fire up the stove. Since school started at eight thirty, we would have to get up about sunrise and walk over to the school house and make sure there was enough coal in the stove to keep us warm all day.

"Miss Donovan, our teacher, would come about eight o'clock to make sure everything was ready for school and to plan our lessons. Then the other kids would start to come.

"There were two French boys and a family of Norwegians--two boys and a girl. They always got a ride to the school house in a little two-seater cutter, or if it was market day, they would come up riding in a big bobsled pulled by a team of horses. The rest of us had to walk, it wasn't bad though. The most anybody had to walk was three miles; that was MaryBeth and Jimmy Haily.

"Like I said, school was supposed to start at eight thirty, but by the time everybody got there and settled down, it came to be about 9:00. Sometimes it didn't get started 'til later; like the time Marcel and Andre got into a snowfight, and before you know it, we were all chasing each other through the snow drifts. Miss Donovan, being a young teacher and all, just stood there and laughed as she rang the bell for us to come in.

"The first class of the day was Spelling. I was never much of a speller; MaryBeth always won the gold star. But in Arithmetic I was even better than some of the older kids. After Arithmetic we would work in our phonics books until it was time for lunch.

"Miss Donovan would bring her skis to school, and we would watch her and some of the older kids as they swooped up and down the snow drifts. We would all laugh and giggle when we saw her skirt fly up as she went by. When she wasn't looking, we would sneak away and climb up on the roof so we could slide down the sides into the snow banks. But you had to be careful, because if you got caught, you had to sit facing the wall for the rest of the day.

"In the afternoon we had Reading and Geography. We all liked Geography best of all because every year we got to make maps out of flour and salt; then we got to paint them.

"If everyone had finished all their work for the day and we had been good for Miss Donovan, she would let us out of school early. But that didn't last for long. One day Mrs. Pritchard, the supervisor, came to school and found out that we had left early. Miss Donovan got in a whole lot of trouble. We were afraid that she might get fired. From then on when we found out that the "big lady" was coming to the school house, we would be on our best behavior so we could be sure that we would have Miss Donovan for our teacher next year."

I could see that my friend was getting tired, so I bid him good day and left him with his precious memories.

Spirit rises from the dead

Student Life of 1975 was different - the students of Northern saw school spirit come back to life. Cheering for the football team and taking part in class activities was once a lost art, but the tradition was restored when students felt the need to let everyone know that they were proud to be Northern Huskies.

The Class of '78 had it all together when Mardi Gras week came around, but their spirit failed to pull them through.

After taking last place in the games and the cart race, their only hope was their wall. Following the theme of Horror Movies, the Frosh recreated a scene from the Headless Horseman. Unfortunately, the horseman couldn't keep his head together, so the Freshmen took last place again.

The Freshmen made an overall good showing, even though their points didn't indicate it, and their spirit shows promise for the future.

The Sophomores pulled a strong third in the Mardi Gras contest this year-third place in the assembly games, third place in the cart race, and third place for their creation, "Phantom of the Opera".

Even though the Sophomores placed next to last in total points, they left the upper classmen and teaching staff amazed at their unity, talent, and spirit. They pulled hard to beat the Senior guys in the tug-of-war and Jenny Hoover ate her heart out to win the pie-eating contest. An over-all fantastic showing for the Class of '77!

Fate pulls Class of '76

The Juniors scored the "Big Blitz" this year. The Class of '76 kept the Mardi Gras Barrel in their possesion. Placing second in the assembly games and second in the cart race, the Juniors had to place first with their wall in order to defeat the Seniors and Sophomores. This they accomplished through their creation of the original Frankenstein.

Rumor has it that the judges were crooked, but one can never convince a Junior of that now. The Sacred Mardi Gras Barrel is in their greedy little paws for another year.

Seniors bring Northern

The senior class of '75 worked long, hard hours on their Mardi Gras homecoming this year. All of their careful planning and labor paid off when they took first place in the assembly games and the half-time cart race. However, fate took a turn for the worse, and the senior wall, 'Dracula' received second place, giving the barrel to the Juniors. There were a lot of tears and much disbelief at the dance, but the class officers best expressed their sentiment:

"The teamwork shown in setting up Dracula (especially in mounting the head!) was unreal. Never before has a senior class become so involved. We 'pushed for victory' this Mardi Gras and we got it. We have felt a satisfaction in our hearts. And that, Class of '75, is something to be proud of."

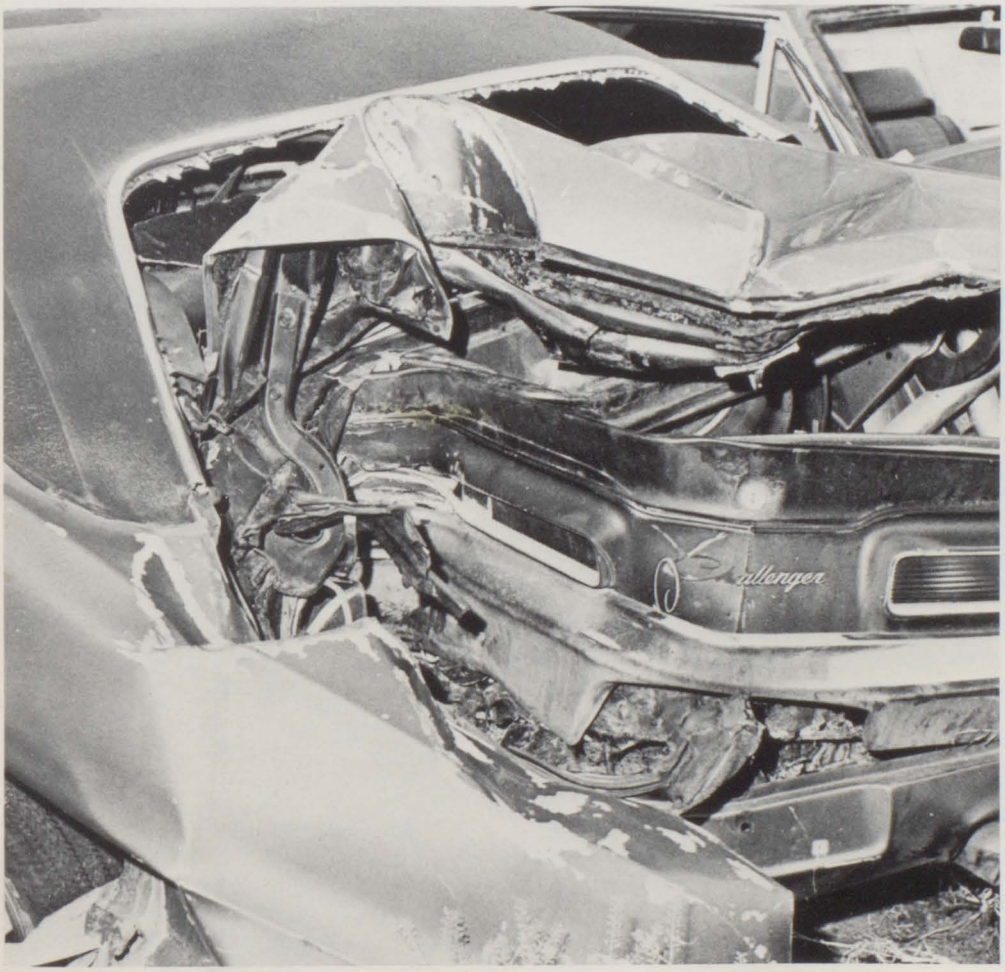
Drivers' Training — crash, bang, smash 'em up



Drivers' training is one course every student at Northern has taken or will take during his school years. Learning how to skillfully operate a motor vehicle takes plenty of practice; it's all worth it though, because when a student gets his license (and his wheels), the world is at his fingertips.

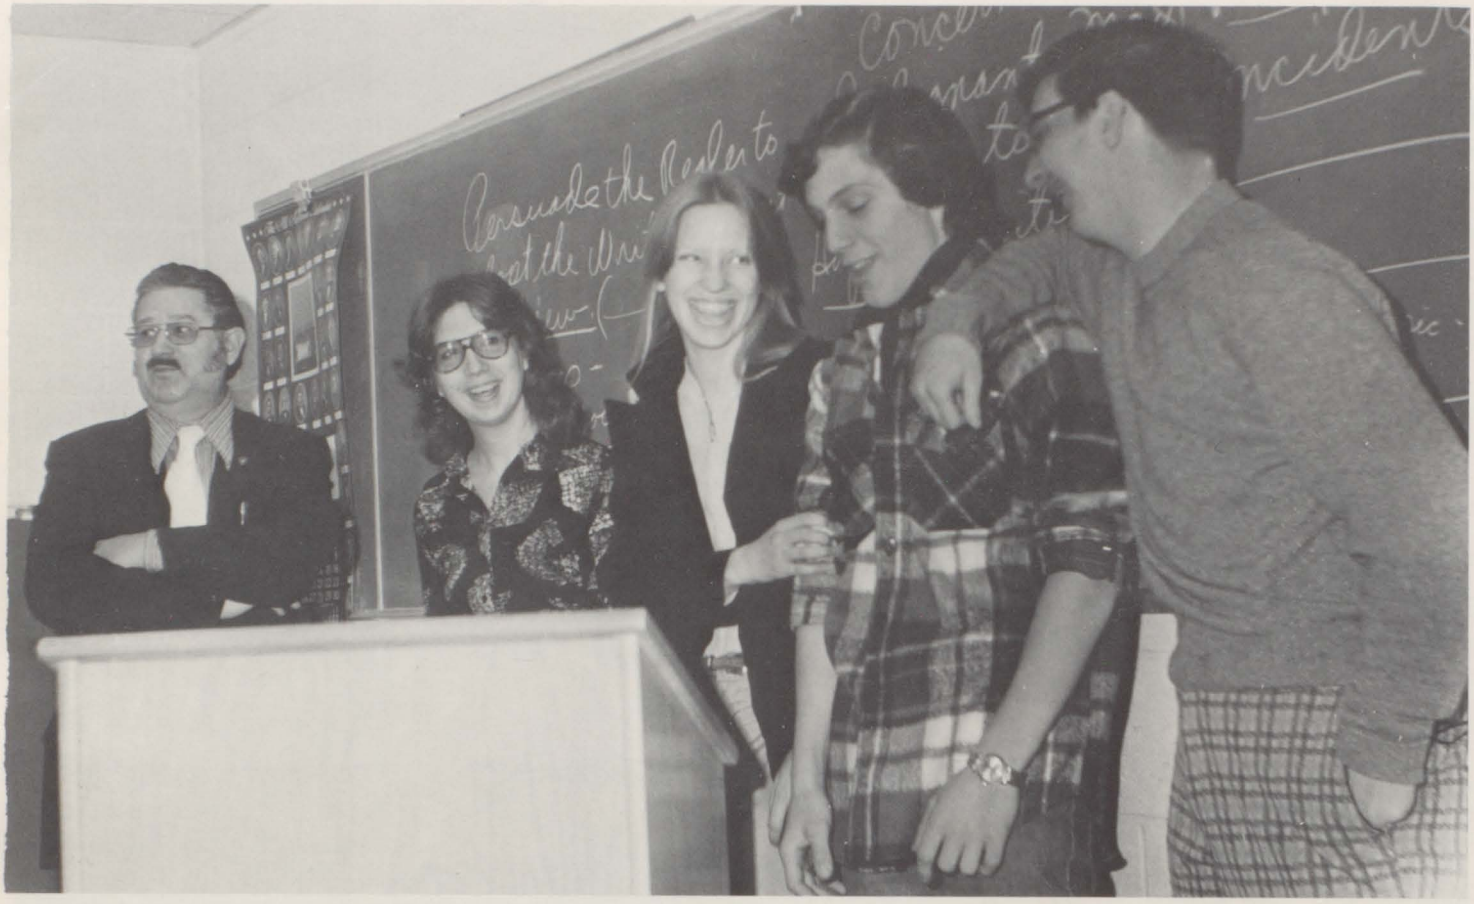
Debate team moves forward



With a record of two wins and six losses in the EML, the Debate team at Northern has come a long way since last year, when their record was no wins and eight losses. The team's hard work has really paid off, and now they have a record they can be a little happier about.

This year's topic for Debate was to discuss the pros and cons of changing the method of selecting the President and Vice President of the United States.

Additional recognition should also be given to Jim Ward for being awarded a trophy for his outstanding accomplishments in Debate.

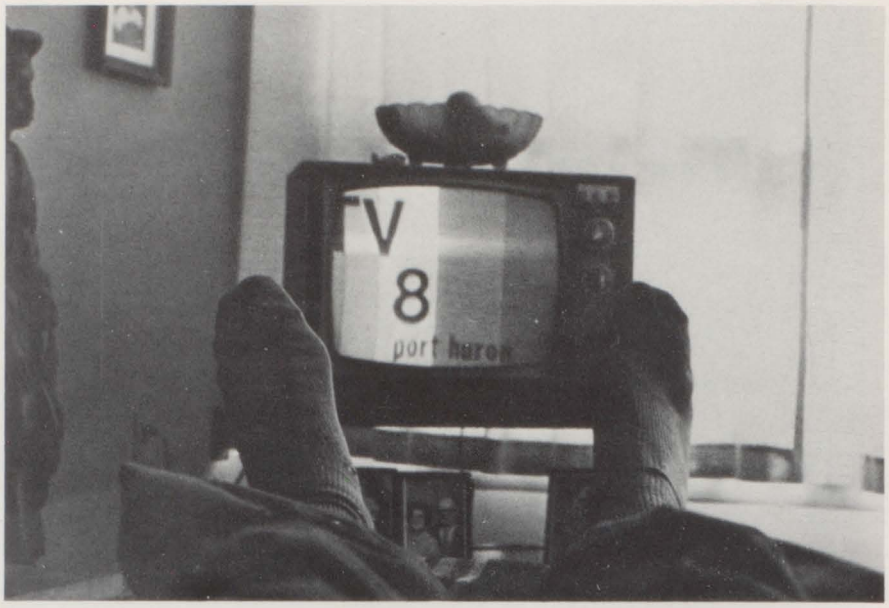
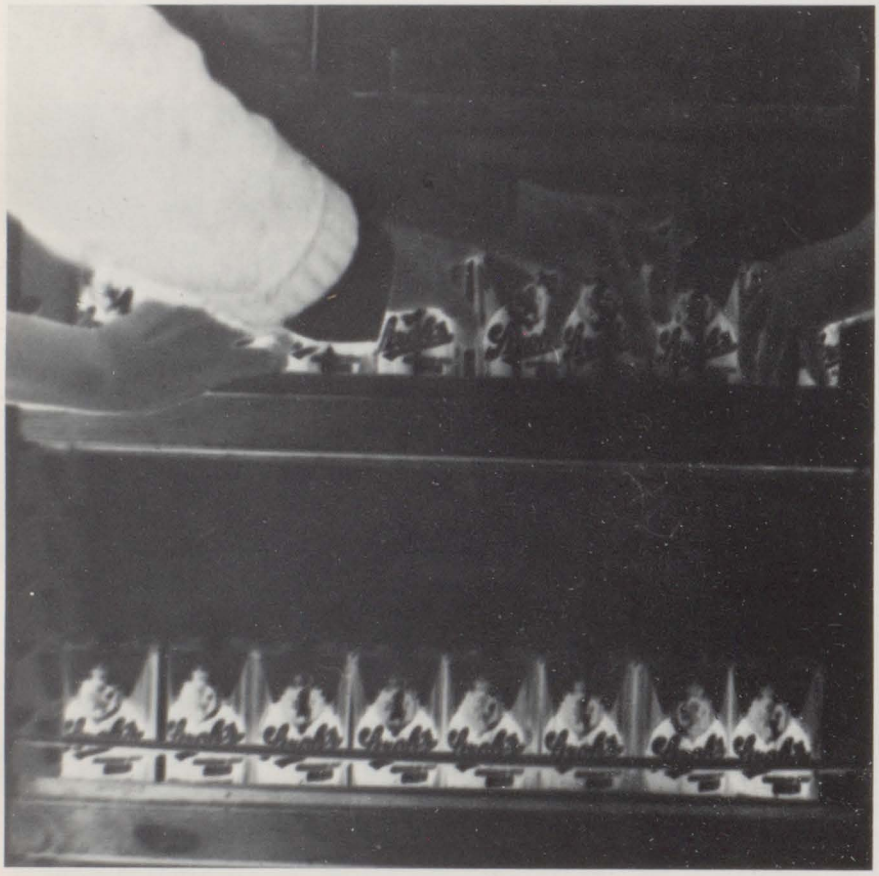
Hooray! It's three!

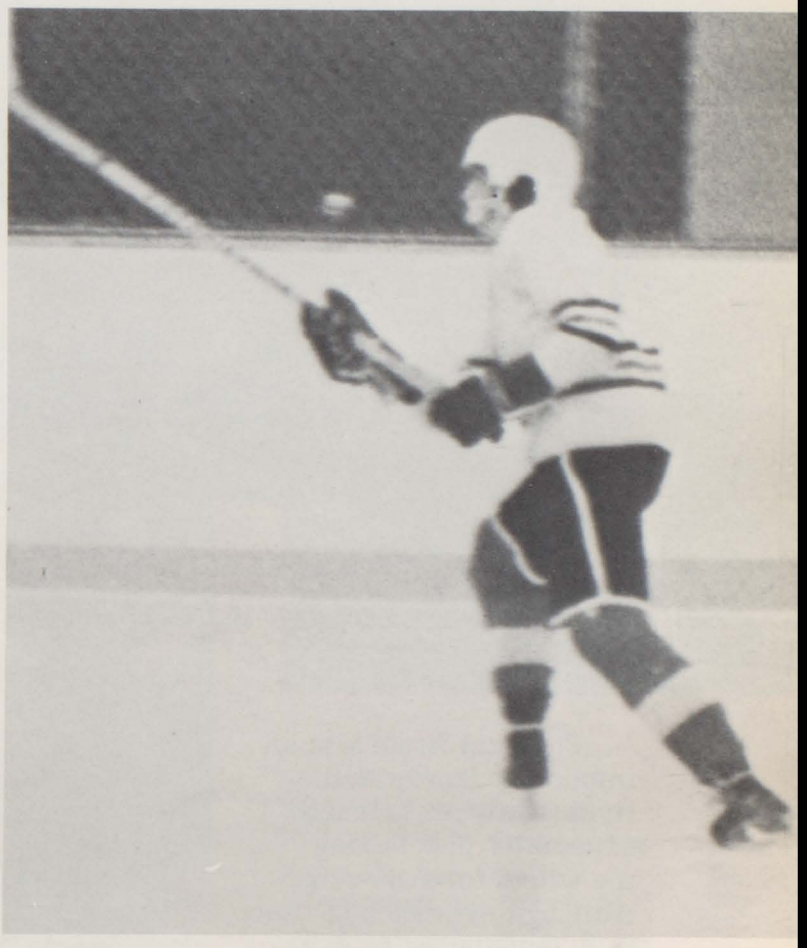
Student life does not really begin until three o'clock on Friday afternoons. Starting on Monday mornings, students eagerly look forward to that last bell on Friday, the bell that signals the end of grueling studies and the beginning of another weekend.

After school activities range from sitting on a lumpy sofa with a Coke and watching Batman and Robin, to loud and wild parties.





We're free!!!



Skiing's becoming more popular with students every year. Students spend hundreds of dollars annually for the latest in skiing equipment and fashions.

Hockey was, and always will be, a popular sport among youngsters and oldsters alike. This year the students challenged the teachers to a hockey game to be played at Mooretown, Ontario. Who won? The students of course, with a slam score of eight to five.

Bowlers strike in spare time

Bowling is a sport that requires skill, coordination, and physical durability. A Husky bowler must be in top physical condition in order to weave and bend his way to a perfect strike.

This year the twenty-four Northern bowling members made up six teams. Their season started in September and lasted through the winter months.

Forensics: Acquiring the gift of gab

Forensics is putting your foot in your mouth with your tongue in your cheek...giving a very serious speech and watching the audience laugh...giving a recital before judges in competition and later finding out that your shirt tail was untucked ...trying to impress the judges by smiling all through the speech and finding out that there is a piece of spinach caught in your two front teeth...forensics is just good ol' fashion fun.

The Girls Tennis Team smashed their way to another undefeated season. They are EML Champions for the third consecutive year! Plus, they won the State Regionals at Oakland University.

All the members of the varsity won matches at the regionals. Heather Mactaggart won the singles championship. She then made it to the semifinals in the State Championships before she succumbed to the opposition.

The junior varsity wasn't quite as successful but they did win three out of their five matches.

Wrestlers are aggressive . . .

The Huskie wrestlers were fortunate this year, their wins topped their losses.

Many new dimensions were added to Huskie wrestling meets. Certainly the most significant of these were the Matmaids. Cheering frantically the Matmaids were an inspiration to the wrestlers.

Harriers run to city championship

The 1974 Huskies' Cross Country Team was coached by Glenn Buhagier. This year's team posted a fine 8-6 record. Leading the way for the Huskies were Co-captains Steve Boden and Mike Miron. The highlight of the season for the Huskies was winning the City Championship against Port Huron Central, Marysville, and Port Huron High.

Coach Buhagiar remarked that this year's team had more potential than any team he had ever coached. All-City Awards went to Steve Boden, Kirk Heier, Howard Henderson, and Mike Miron, capping off the best season in recent years for the Northern Cross Country Team.

The foundation is laid for a possible E. M. L. Championship next season.

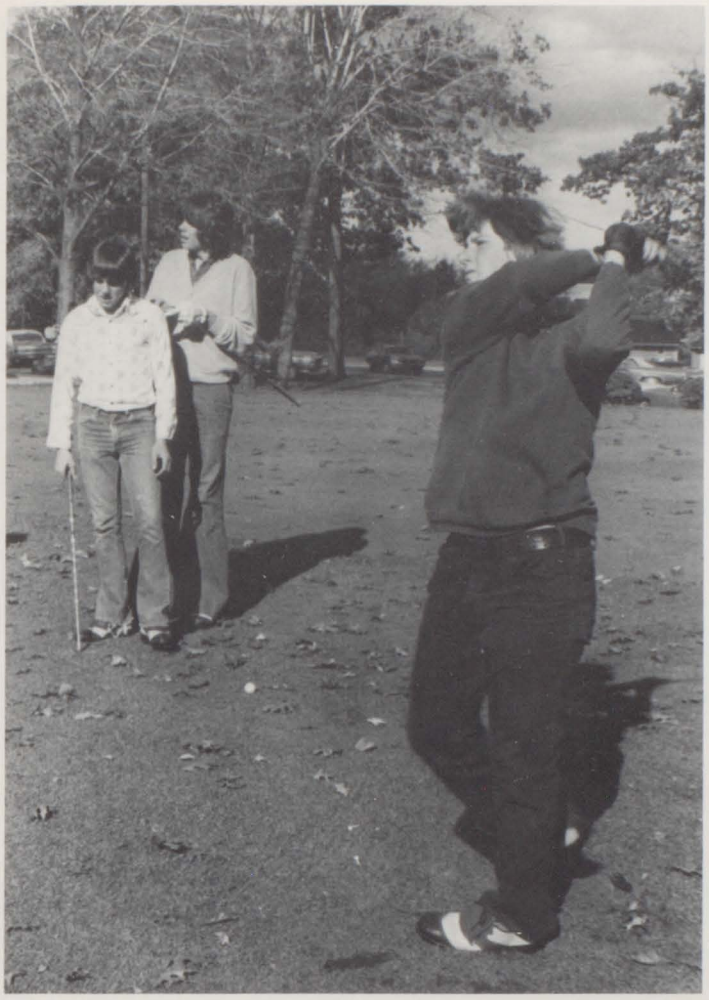
Golf team has a disappointing season



The 1974 Husky Golf Team posted a disappointing season this fall by recording six wins and ten losses. The Huskies displayed great improvement toward the end of the season, by placing second in the EML, and first in the city championship.

Leaders of this year's team were Tom Price, Mike Nurenburg, and Scott Berdan all shooting in the low forties.

Mr. Komph commented, "This was one of the worst seasons in many years, due to the underclassmen's lack of experience."

Twinkle, twinkle little stars

The North Stars were a driving force behind the renewed spirit at Northern. Their performances at football and basketball games entertained the spectators during the long half-time wait.

Some other activities the members undertook were making home-made bread to raise money for new uniforms, and traveling to intermediate schools to entertain the troops.

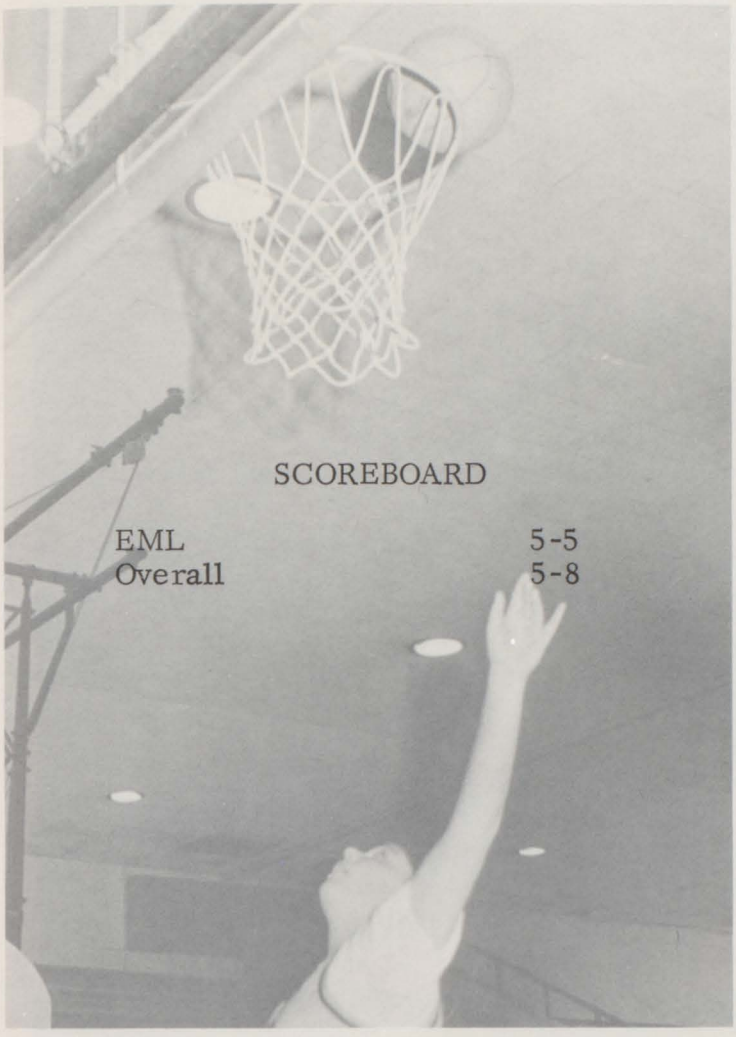
Girls bounce their way through season



The 1974 Girls Basketball Team completed its first season under the coaching of Miss Fugiel and Mrs. Harwood. The varsity showed great spirit and the will to sacrifice a little extra in making their first season a success. Despite the lack of large crowds (often several people showed up) to spur them on, the girls made the best out of the lack of support they did have. Learning to dribble, pass, and shoot was their main objective. The girls supplied many moments of spills and thrills. The ice has now been broken for them to excel in sports just as their counterparts have done for years.

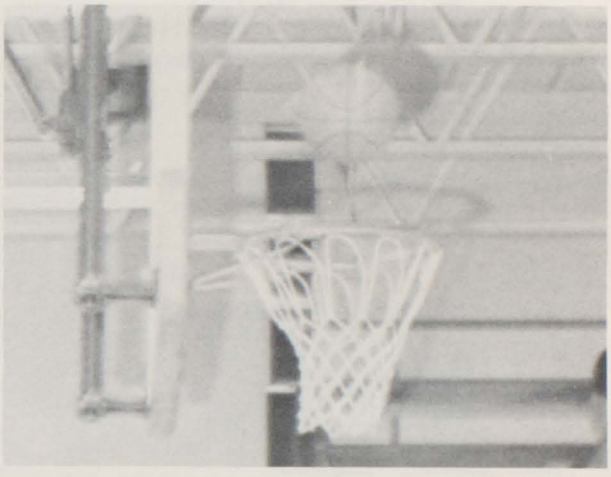
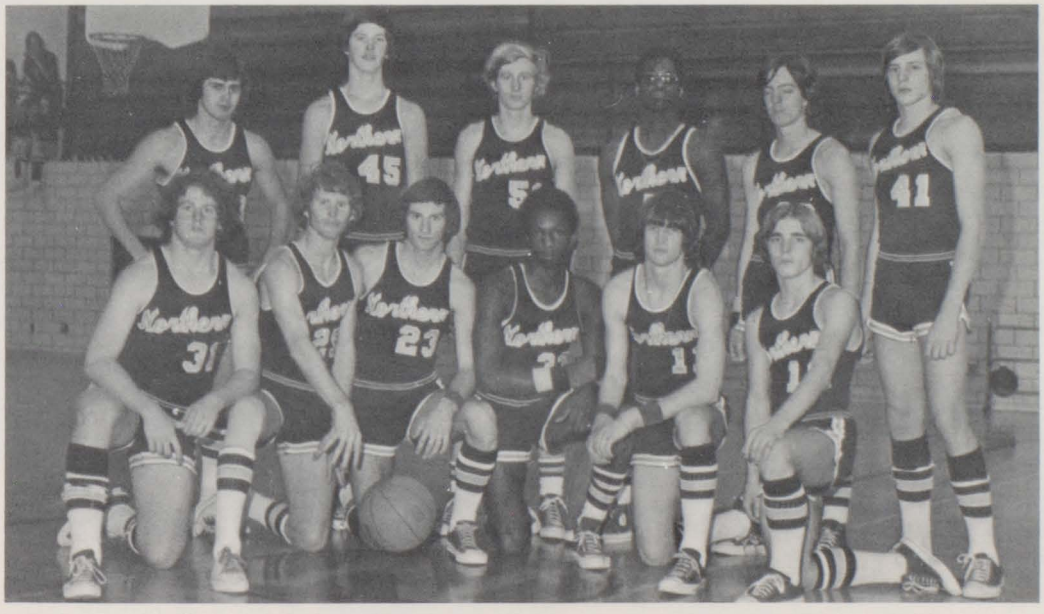
Basketball at Northern has yet another year to prove itself. Although better than last year's team, it has a long way to reach the top. Players were frustrated and disappointed in themselves, but continually showed determination.

The Huskie Captain, Steve Boden, was excellent from the free-throw line, and the rest of the team tried hard to bring a winning season to Northern.

So all we can do is wait until next year. . .





UPPER LEFT: Steve Boden and Jessie Gunter watch the game slip away. MIDDLE RIGHT: An unfamiliar sight, as the Huskies gain two points.

J.V. pivets past opponents

Northern's J. V. Basketball Team was a ray of light to many of Northern's basketball fans. Being one of the few winning teams, J. V. victories were victories for everyone here at Northern.

The Hustling J. V. Team is a bright promise for a future winning Varsity team at PHN.

RIGHT: Brad Bates and Brian Clark wait patiently for a rebound in the PHN--Roseville game.

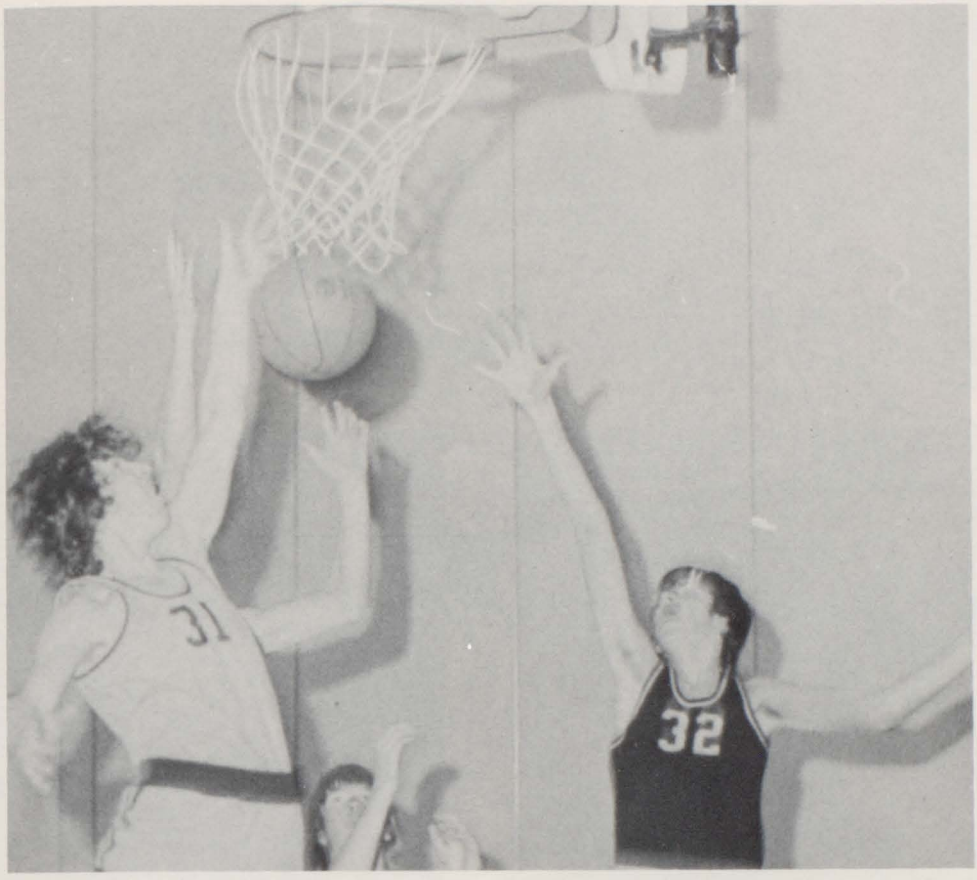
Frosh dribblers dampen opponents



The Freshman basketball men showed good potential by dribbling around and all over their opponents.

And by the time they get to be varsity players they promise to be real good.

BOTTOM: S. Zurick, M. Dykman, D. Dupuis, T. Assaf, C. Bloch. TOP: P. Brain, Coach Taggart. Missing: D. McIntyre, U. Stink.

All of the racket on the courts this year came from the comics of the tennis team. Once they got smashed, they were often called for double faulting. One time P. Brain got so mad that he double-faulted a whole set. That was the reason for everyone throwing tennis balls and cans at him in the team picture.

Most of the players played the game well - taking advantage whenever possible, and even though they appear to be hams, they are only trying to impress the girls. The audacity of the team was that they even made "love" on the court.

RIGHT: M. Dykman shows his cool by hitting a backhanded forehand. (Don't let him fool ya - actually it is one of those paddles with a ball and string attached.)

If at first . . . cry, cry again

Rah rah girls are great!

Although they had little to cheer about, the 1974-'75 Varsity Cheerleaders came to be the sport season's Best Show. They were well organized and tried to inject some much needed spirit when the events were lacking crowd approval; even when the cheers didn't go exactly as planned, the girls were still entertaining.

Depth keys winning season

The 1974 Husky Football Team completed its nine-game schedule with a 5 win-4 loss record. Northern's first game was against a tough Grosse Pointe North team, a team which Northern has never defeated in the past four years. The Huskies dominated the game winning 19-15.

Northern was hit by the injury bug early in the season with nine players out with broken bones, concussions, and sprains.

The Huskies began the year with three consecutive wins, a feat which no other Husky team has achieved. At that time the Detroit Free Press rated Northern tenth best in the state, a very high honor which everyone in the school and community should be proud of.

With a record of three and five
Our team had trouble staying alive.

And all our team could do was try.
But trying was not good enough
Because all the other teams were too tough.
Unfortunately our team came in almost last
So let's not talk about J. V.'s past!

Frosh: Lack of experience made up in spirit

The 1974 Freshmen Football Teams experienced what it is like playing schools that have had inmediate football, losing a total of eleven games and winning only four.

This was the first year that our school has had teams without any intermediate football experience. The results due to this lack of experience was obvious.

The Blue Team was coached by Craig Dahlke and Tim Redmond. Mr. Hanton and Joe Marone were at the helm of the Gold Team. Although the records were not impressive, Northern should be proud of the positive attitude and 'never say die' spirit that is sure to be a great factor in the future.

The Girls' Volleyball Team wound up the season. They did really well this year. Both the Varsity and the J. V. played excellently throughout the season. They also displayed excellent sportsmanship throughout the season. They also got excellent new uniforms this year. The Varsity had horizontal stripes and the J. V. had vertical stripes on their shorties. All in all they had an excellent season while they were wearing their excellent new uniforms throughout the year.

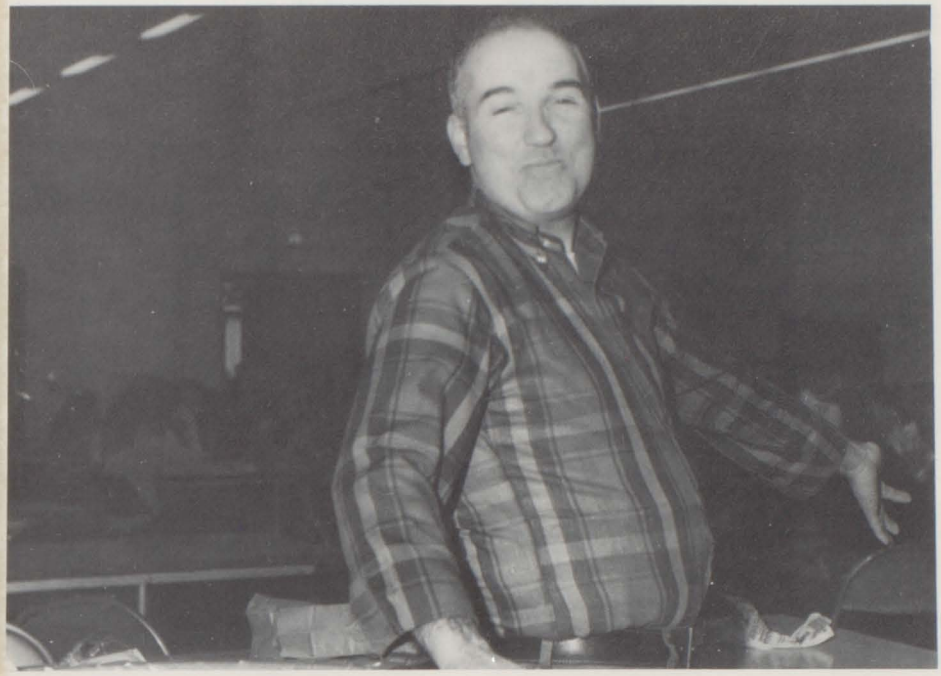
MULTIPLE CHOICE QUIZ: Turn upside-down for answers.

CHOICES: a) Mr. Overly b) Mr. Morehead c) El Huegh d) a&b only

1.) Who always uses the term "snow-balling?" 2.) Who carries a tommy gun? 3.) Who uses Johnson Wax on his head? 4.) Who patrols the potties? 5.) Who starves the students to keep the school clean?

Answers: 1a, 2c, 3a, 4b, 5d,

Cooks and Custodians



Much credit is due the cooks at Northern in this year of spiraling prices and economic strife. Through their research they conjured up all sorts of new delectable treats to stretch the food budget.

On the other hand, the custodians were not so concerned with the economy. Instead they concentrated on the environment. Whenever he was needed a custodian could always be found. For their never-ending service to PHN these custodians deserve a bronze mop, but we hope they will settle for our thanks.

This year the Spirit staff was a cast of characters. And characters they were.

For instance the staff had the honor of having Dave Lapish. In another sports-related field we had Denice Beauvais, a member of the North Star Drill Team. It came to pass that Denice and Dave happened upon each other and formed a team of their own.

Another biggie on the Spirit staff is Jay Barrymore. Jay was president of the National Honor Society, and a Co-Editor of this book. The one accomplishment that Jay is proud of is that he finally got a table tennis picture in the book.

The other Co-Editor was Jeff Bartlett. Jeff tended to be rather emotional at times, but it didn't bother the staff too much because between his job and the radio station, Jeff wasn't around a whole lot.

Next we come to Linda Lynch. Linda was well liked by the staff, in fact we loved her. Every night Donna Duquette would come into the staff room and work, or so we thought. Actually she had a certain someone on her mind (who will remain nameless.)

Notice the high quality pictures throughout the book. These can be blamed on Sue Bombard, Greg Smith and Brian Lohr. The one who did the botch on the football pictures was Dave Watson. Cathy Lorts, Bob Andrews, and Manuel Efstratis did the artwork throughout the book.

Mary Jo Faust and Jacki Ely are responsible for the Student Life Section. They asked not to be called M.J. Fast and Jacki Gay Ely, so they weren't.

Another starlet on our staff was Sheryl Curtis; captain of the Drill Team. Sheryl along with Denice managed our books. They managed pretty well since we found out that we are only $849.67 short.

Ron Derocher tried something new this year; putting the index names in order.

Body section were Connie Bartold, Kathy Barr, JoAnne Branch, and Cindy Donovan. If something is wrong with a picture, it wasn't a mistake. It was done on purpose because we didn't like that person.

Margaret Peek and Gerri Kuberski were our general helpers, and honestly if it wasn't for them we would have been generally helpless.

Two members joined our staff second semester; Bonnie Sinnett and Cindy Kovach.

In the sports section you will probably notice the finess of Ted Barss. Actually Ted did work hard, but not at getting his section finished.

Our Advisor, Miss Lorolie Brown wondered how she got stuck with such dips as Bartlett and Barrymore. She was last seen in the unemployment line.

From September, 1971, until June, 1975, myriads of events have affected the lives of students at Northern.

One of the most important events became known as Watergate. Under Richard M. Nixon, a "law and order" President, a series of unbelievable events took place. There was the bugging of the Democratic headquarters, the cover-up, secret tapes, mysterious buzzes and gaps in the tapes, executive privilege, perjury, laundered money, hush money, dirty tricks, expletive deleted, wiretapping, nonpayment of taxes, tens of millions of dollars for San Clemente and Florida homes, "at that point in time"; "inoperative," the vote to impeach, and finally Richard Nixon's resignation on August 9, 1974.

But let us not forget Richard Nixon's words of April, 1973. "...No individual holding, in the past or at present, a position of major importance in the administration should be given immunity from prosecution." 17 months later RMN was pardoned by President Gerald R. Ford for all crimes Nixon committed or may have committed President of the United States.

Other political events happened in the last four years, too. Nixon went to China, he swamped McGovern in the 1972 presidential election, taking 49 states. At first it was thought that Massachusetts was out of step, but it was later discovered that Massachusetts was indeed in step and that the rest of the country was out of it.

The "good guys" of Watergate - The Washington Post, Carl Berstein, Bob Woodward, Richard Kleindienst, Archibald Cox, Judge John Sirica, and Leon Jaworski.

George Wallace was shot, Agnew resigned, Ford replaced him, and when Ford moved up a step, Rockefeller replaced him. The oil embargo, another mideast war, Detente, Henry Kissinger with his premature, "Peace is at hand," Months later the end of U. S. involvement in Viet Nam. But the war still rages on. Wilbur Mills and Fanne Foxe.

Nixon in the Thumb (with all those rowdy protestors - "communist hippie radical outside agitators" screamed the little old ladies) - from Northern). Milliken reelected governor. Ella Grasso elected governor in Massachusetts, the Democratic sweep of 1974.

Amnesty, abortion, energy crises, women's lib, E. R. A., Solzhenitsyn, busing for integration, the kidnapping of Patty Hearst, the SLA, and the Pentagon Papers.

Other occurences, both local and national, interested Northern students. The teachers' strike (not starting school until the last day of September and getting out at the end of June), the student walkout at Northern, Frazier beating Ali, Foreman over Frazier, and Ali over Foreman to regain the World Championship. Evel Knieval, hijacking, the earthquake in Managua and the student council donating $500 to help the victims. Skylab, the tunnel explosion, streaking, the rise in teenage alcoholism, DST and going to school in the dark. Al Kaline and Gordie Howe retiring and Howe making a comeback in the WHA. Inflation and recession, Spurgeon Harvey, compact cars, and the Tigers losing by one run in the fifth game of the playoffs.

Concerts: such as Elton John, Queen, David Bowie, Aerosmith, Bob Seeger and Gordon Lightfoot. Movies: Godfather I and II, Clockwork Orange, The Exorcist, American Grafiti, The Sting, Billy Jack and The Trial of Billy Jack.

Happenings at Northern: The Compass, pocket calculators, Graduation, Dances, open and closed study halls, assemblies, hall monitors, the hypnotist, magazine sales, music in the morning, WORW, the messy cafeteria, Mr. Ivan's book room and the Honors Convocation. Tests: the SAT, PSAT/NM SQT, OVIS, ACT, ACH., MMPO, etc. Elections, and El Huegh.

My child arrived just the other day.
He came to the world in the usual way.
But there were planes to catch and bills to pay.
He learned to walk while I was away.
And he was talkin' 'fore I knew it, and as he grew
He'd say "I'm gonna be like you, dad,
You know I'm gonna be like you."

My son turned ten just the other day.
He said "Thanks for the ball, dad, come on let's play.
Can you teach me to th.ow?", I said "Not today
I got alot to do." He said "That's O.K."
And he walked away, but his smile never dimmed,
And said "I'm gonna be like him, yeah,
You know I'm gonna be like him."

And the cat's in the cradle and the silver spoon
Little boy blue and the man on the moon
"When you comin' home dad?"
"I don't know when, but we'll get together then.
You know we'll have a good time then."

Well he came from college just the other day.
So much like a man I just had to say
"Son, I'm proud of you can you sit for awhile?"
He shook his head and said with a smile
"What I'd really like dad is to borrow the car keys.
See you later. Can I have them please?"

I've long since retired. My son's moved away.
I called him up just the other day.
I said "I'd like to see you if you don't mind."
He said "I'd love to dad if I can find the time.
You see my new job's a hassle and the kids have the flu
But it's sure nice talking to you, dad.
It's been sure nice talking to you."

And as I hung up the phone it occurred to me-
He'd grown up just like me.
My boy was just like me.

And the cat's in the cradle and the silver spoon
Little boy blue and the man on the moon.
"When you comin' home son?"
"I don't know when, but we'll get together then, dad.
You know we'll have a good time then."

-Sandy Chapin, Harry Chapin

Only a moment, a moment of strength, of romance, of glamour-of youth!...
a flick of sunshine upon a strange shore,
the time to remember, the time for a sigh, and-goodbye-Night-Goodbye!

-Joesph Conrad

Ray Holifield, better known to the students as the man who stands on the corner, was one of the few person's who made our days brighter. He could be described as sunshine on a rainy day. Nothing stopped him from bringing joy to us all each and every day. Though he will not be there anymore we will always remember the happiness he brought to us.
